and supper Thanksgiving. 5 or 6 doses of 666 will cure any case of Chills and Fever. Price 25 cents. Bottling Works For Sale—also horse and spring wagon. Apply to Frank Roylance, Fort Pierce.

Mr. L. M. Gray, of Cairo, Ga., arrived here Monday night to accept a position in the Star barber shop and is making friends rapidly.

FOR SALE—All or any part of 80 acres of pine and hammock land at Viking. Will grow anything. D. B. Sheffield, Fort Pierce, Fla.

Five pictures have been moving at the Crystal all this week and good crowds have moved there to see the pictures move. A fine program is arranged for tonight and tomorrow night.

Miss Maggie Belle Thaxton, Fort Pierce's popular elocution teacher, was the guest of her sister, Mrs. W. H. Robinson, at Eldred, the latter part of last week, and attended several social events in that hospitable section.

Mr. John E. Plato, a prominent merchant of Amherst, Ohio, has been in our city several days the guest of his boyhood friend, Mr. Lawrence Faber. This is Mr. Plato's first visit and he is so well pleased that he is thinking of purchasing a winter home site.

Mr. W. L. Bragg, of West Palm Beach, spent Tuesday in the city gathering material for a write-up of Fort Pierce for the Homeseeker, of which he is advertising manager and practically editor. Mr. Bragg is also editor of the Tropical Sun, of the above city, and we acknowledge a fraternal call.

Rev. C. L. Work has been holding services every evening this week at the Methodist church and giving some excellent talks to his congregations. Next week Rev. W. K. Piner will hold services in the same church on Tuesday, Wednesday, Thursday and Friday evenings, and Thanksgiving service Thursday morning, to which all are invited.

For the benefit of those not familiar with the game laws of the State we publish the following in regard to fishing: "Whosoever being a non-resident of the State catches or takes fish within its jurisdiction for any other purpose other than his own individual use, without first obtaining a license therefor, shall be punished by a fine not exceeding one thousand dollars for each and every boat engaged in such business."

Mr. Frank Andrews, of Newport, Ky., and Sewalls Point, is now thoroughly enjoying the trial runs of his handsome motor speed boat which was launched last week from Gladwin's boat works. The hum of her six cylinder engine attracts many every day to watch and admire her skimming over the water in front of the city at more than twenty miles an hour. Mr. Andrews is grooming her for the Lake Worth races this winter, and Mr. Gladwin's fame as a speed-boat builder will blaze forth when his creation competes with the world's swiftest motor boats next March.

Every newspaper wants to publish the news for the better the paper the more prosperous it will be. Local news items are especially hard to run down. How many times has the newspaper man approached you for an item of news and you told him you knew nothing of interest? Probably at the time your family was away on a visit or some one from out of town was visiting at your home. Of course you did not mean to deceive the scribe, yet when you received the paper you wondered why your family or your friends was not mentioned. Please avoid this by telling us or sending a note to the office. Such news is the life of a strictly home paper.—Ex.

Next Thursday is Thanksgiving Day and the usual observances will be carried out in the way of closing business houses, church services, charity entertainments, etc., and not a few will hie to the woods, river and swamps in search of game. Many fine dinners will also be enjoyed, all the first-class hotels will have turkey stuffed with oysters, with cranberry sauce and the usual trimmings, with venison and birds on the side. The regular boarders are to be served in preference to the stranger and with the choicest, no wings, necks and feet being served. Stewed tomatoes, frits and potatoes will be barred and the waiter will be allowed to ask, "Will you have something else?" Turkey hash for breakfast next morning would put the finishing touches on this day in dreamland.

Don't forget to be at the bazaar next Thursday.

5 or 6 doses of "666" will cure any case of Chills and Fever. Price 35 cents.

Mr. and Mrs. E. C. B. Tyndall, of Jensen, spent Sunday in the city, the guests of Capt. and Mrs. Benj. Hogg.

A big supper for 25 cents on Thanksgiving evening. Where? Follow the crowd.

Rev. Geo. Marsh will preach at Ankona, Eden and Jensen at the usual hours next Sunday. All welcome.

By request of the Fort Pierce Epworth League Rev. W. K. Piner, D. D., will give "An Evening with James Whitcomb Riley" on Monday, Nov. 29, at 8 o'clock p. m. Admission 25 cents; reserved seats 35 cents. The program will be an entire change from the one recently given.

The money which Governor Gilchrist is to distribute to the soldiers of the Spanish-American war will go only to those who were in Colonel Lovell's regiment, the First Florida, and only to those whose names have been furnished by the U. S. government. The smallest amount to be paid to any man is 32 cents, the largest amount, $23.36.

The Kissimmee Gazette says that one of the greatest drawbacks to the church today is that every defaulter, embezzler and gentleman thief stood high in church circles before his crime was detected. There was a time when none but honest men could unite with a church but that was before such situations depended on church membership.

The Ladies' Circle of the Presbyterian church will have a bazaar and supper at the Improvement Club hall on Thanksgiving afternoon and night and everybody will be made welcome and find something to interest them. One feature of the bazaar will be a doll booth for the children. Let all go and lend a helping hand to a worthy cause.

The Colonnades Hotel, at Seabreeze, the largest hotel on Daytona Beach since The Clarendon was burned ten months ago, was entirely consumed by fire about 9 o'clock Friday night, supposedly by an incendiary. The building and contents were insured for $60,000 but the loss is much greater. Two hundred guests had engaged reservations for the winter and the owner was on the way from Uniontown, Pa., to arrange for the season's opening.

The West Palm Beach Volunteer Fire Department will give their annual Masquerade Ball in the Firemen's Hall on Thursday night, November 25. No invitations will be sent out this year, as previously, but all are cordially invited to attend. No one will be allowed to dance except in costume until after the grand march and all masks have been removed. Come and enjoy yourselves at the grandest affair of the season. Accommodations for all.

Mr. K. M. Tedder, Superintendent of Public Instruction, was the victim of a severe accident Monday night when he received a bad fall which broke his right leg just below the thigh. While descending the stair steps from his office in the Raulerson building, in the dark, he slipped and fell to the bottom, almost the entire length of the stair. Friends rushed to his assistance and immediately his injuries were learned physicians were summoned and the sufferer removed to his home. While the injury is necessarily painful and will confine him to his bed for some time he is resting comparatively easy. Mr. Tedder's many friends wish him a speedy recovery.

Take the newspapers as a whole in Florida and they outclass in makeup, the news they give, and the good they do for their State, those of any State in this country. The newspaper men of Florida are hustlers; they are doing a great work for the State, and their incomes are not commensurate with the arduous work they do. But while they are in the business for a living they do the work with great cheerfulness and take a pride in the growth and prosperity of Florida and her citizens. Were it not for her newspapers the State, cities and towns would not be enjoying that prosperity which is her good fortune today.—DeLand Record. Right, you are, Brother. In every town there are merchants, mostly small ones, who are enjoying the benefits of newspapers to the support of which they do not contribute even good will except when a favor is wanted, and the same kind of a man will prosper by the light of another's lamp and then have a clear conscience Monday morning.

GLORIA GASOLINE LIGHTING SYSTEM, PERFECTED

A practical resident light; the only gasoline light that can be successfully manipulated by women and children. More brilliant than electricity and 50 per cent cheaper. The lights can be turned up or down at will; can be lighted INSTANTLY at any time of day or night WITHOUT GENERATING. This is a feature not contained in any other gasoline lighting system. With the Improved Plant, in connection with the Gloria Lamp, there is absolute success in the system. There is no direct handling of gasoline in this system, the gasoline being forced in the pressure tank by pump. This obviates the handling of gas as in the old plug filler plants. At the same time the pressure is maintained in the whole system continually. I am prepared now to put this system in your home or place of business. Call and see two plants of this system in operation now in Fort Pierce. I will call on you shortly with this lighting plant. The Improved Plant is patented by

A. B. LOWRY, Fort Pierce

Anything you want at the bazaar on Thanksgiving.

Our valued Eden and Gifford correspondence was crowded out of this issue for lack of time.

Mrs. Josephine King and son George are visiting their cousins, the Faber brothers, at West Palm Beach this week and are expected home Monday.

WANTED—A young man with some experience at feeding presses and the distribution of type, or a first-class all-round printer, can secure a permanent job by applying early at this office. A good place for the right man.

A hunting party composed of Messrs. P. C. and D. P. Eldred, Frank Goodwin and R. D. Robinson returned home Wednesday evening after a three days' successful hunt in the neighborhood of Cane Slough. Much sport was enjoyed and birds, deer, ground rattlers and moccasins were plentiful. Deer were seen every day, but to Mr. Robinson belongs the honor of bagging the only one shot, and of using only one charge to accomplish the feat. This is the first and only deer The News has personal knowledge of being killed this season.

Mr. Wm. S. Norwood, one of the best known citizens of Brevard county, died at his home in Titusville last Thursday afternoon of neuralgia of the heart, after a short illness. Mr. Norwood came to the East Coast from Albany, Ga., in 1908, with Mr. Robt. Morris, and located at what is now known as Sharps, afterwards going to the LaGrange section, and when Titusville was settled he moved there. His first wife was a Miss Feaster and they raised a family of thirteen children. His second wife, whom he married a few months ago, survives him. He was a genial man and had warm friends in every section of the State. Mrs. Lawrence Faber, of this city was a relative by marriage, her grandfather having married Mr. Norwood's mother.

The Knocker Knocked.

The world isn't fond of the kicker who kicks regardless of reason or rhyme, who grumbles and fusses and put in his licks at knocking the whole blessed time, he's growing too frequent and fierce in this land with his wild, indiscriminate kicks, and people agree that he ought to be canned or pelted with vitrified bricks. The kicker who kicks with some judgment and taste does good as he moseys along, he knows that a kick is too precious to waste, as waste in all matters is wrong, he kicks at injustice and folly and sham where ever he finds the main force, he goes to the show and he kicks at the ham whose acting is tiresome and coarse; he kicks at the author whose novels are punk, he kicks at the singer who squawks, he kicks at the statesman unloading his junk in congress and drawing the rocks; he kicks at the cheap, and tawdry and stale wherever they're floating about, he kicks that so many good men are in jail and so many fourth raters are out. 'Tis a pity he wouldn't get tired some time and lay on the rails for a sleep while a well laden train in wending its way would upon him so quietly creep that before he awakened the whole loaded train across his body would fly so that his kicking in after years would be done beyond the sky—or somewhere else.
